The timeline includes facts about technology, pop culture, world events, music and more from the last 60 years. Also, you will notice that there is information on the timeline about when staff members started working here at J.W. Reason. On Saturday, September 15th we will have a special birthday party for J.W. Reason Elementary school from 9am-noon.

J.W. Reason would also like to present our World Language teacher, Amal Botros, to the Board. We are honored to be a 2nd year recipient of a Teachers of Critical Languages grant. Amal has joined our staff for the school year and will be teaching Arabic to our students.

Persons wishing to address the board should make written requests in advance of the meeting or complete the Visitor Form found where the agenda materials are located. When called, each speaker is asked to address the board at the microphone so that remarks may be clearly heard and recorded. The speaker should give his or her name and address and limit comments to three minutes.

Board members may ask questions of the speaker for information or clarification and may or may not make comments in response to a speaker’s remarks. It should be noted that this section of the agenda is to hear the views of citizens about their schools. E3 Because of the unpredictable and often urgent demand for Coordinator services that can effectively preclude Coordinators from using all of their earned and accrued vacation days in a given vacation year, that the Board adopt the following resolution and policy with respect to District Maintenance, Operations, Custodial, and Warehouse Coordinators:

1. Any such Coordinator with an earned and accrued vacation balance as of the end of his/her vacation year in excess of thirty (30) days may opt to cash in, at his/her then current rate of pay, up to but not to exceed ten (10) vacation days.
2. On a one-time basis only, any such Coordinator with an earned and accrued vacation balance in excess of forty-five (45) days as of July 31, 2018 may opt to cash in up to but not to exceed twenty (20) vacation days.
3. In all cases, the Coordinator wishing to cash in vacation days shall promptly make that fact known via email (or other writing) to the District Treasurer following the end of the employee’s vacation year. The Treasurer has final authority to approve or disapprove any Coordinator’s request, which approval will not be withheld arbitrarily or capriciously; it is intended, however, that approval may and typically will be withheld in times of financial austerity as determined by the Treasurer in consultation with the Board President.
